

Hard to Understand?

We hear the complaint from milk-fed SDAs that the message of Prophecy is too hard to understand—but is this so?

This is from Africa

I had VBS with the children last week. Only one boy was consistent to the very end, and was warned by the mother not to come to be coming to my house. I taught the latter rain message and the boy knows too much for his age? I gave him D and R by TC and he answers questions in class and I wonder but still understand. The book looks old, I think he has read all of it and he walks around with it from time to time

When I teach the people some complain it's too difficult, but here is a 12 year old who can explain the 1st, 2nd and 3rd angel's messages, the 3 tests, the line of Noah, John, Miller and faithful SDAs.

He was supposed to preach last Sabbath but instruction came that he should instead do the children story. for the sake of peace, we submitted but he was quite disappointed.

Too bad that the older people choose to block the truth, even when a child is prepared by the Holy Spirit to give it to them!
